BIOGRAPHY: Mr. Anthony Williams

Mr. Anthony Williams, born October 25, 1965, is a well-respected anointed and dedicated man of God. He was born into a family that loved and appreciated music, and his passion for music began at an early age. Anthony led his first song at age eight, and ever since he has been using the gift of singing that God gave him.

Anthony has worked with numerous musical ministries throughout his life, including Brown Bethel Choir, First Elizabeth Choir, St. John P. B. Church Choir, Jacob Chapel Freewill Baptist Choir, and Jerusalem M. B. Church Choir. Anthony has also had the opportunity to share a stage with illustrious recording artists such as Timothy Wright, the Williams Brothers, Leonard Williams, Dallas Fort Worth Mass Choir (with whom he served as the lead singer for "Nobody Knows"), Luther Vandross, Mariah Carey, Patti LaBelle, and Lou Rawls.

In 1991, he appeared on Showtime at the Apollo and won. In 1995, he sang at the Tallahassee Urban League Annual Dinner, featuring guest artist Patti LaBelle. After hearing him sing, she called Anthony at home and asked him to tour with her. He traveled with Patti LaBelle and her entourage for seven years, appearing on television shows such as The Tonight Show, Oprah, Regis and Kelly, Good Morning America, The Today Show, and The View. Anthony also sang for President Bill Clinton at a fundraising event.

In an effort to reach out to his community, Anthony sang for functions sponsored by United Way, the Urban League, and the NAACP. He appeared in productions such as "Mama, I Didn't Mean to Hurt You," which featured guest artist Timothy Wright.

On December 13, 2008, the U-Can! Man LLC CEO, John Wallace Isom Jr, asked Mr. Anthony Williams to create a song titled "U-Can!" (the U-Can! Man LLC one-HIT wonder). Anthony accepted this challenge, and, on February 21, 2009, Anthony completed the God-inspired U-Can! song. With God's help, Anthony wrote, arranged, produced, and performed all the music for the song. This song was inspired by the present and will inspire a brighter future. It is dedicated to the Yes We Can man, President Barack Obama, and to the people, from the U-Can! Man. U-CAN! The U-Can! Man believes, based on Matthew 17:20, that God will help this original song to become a global success!
